Move-In Day
August 25, 2001

Dan Miroballi, Rich Siok, and Ken Keslinke help move a futon. The fraternities and sororities helped move students in to their dorms by carrying futons, refrigerators, bunches of boxes, and who-knows-what else. Photo by: Lisa Dwyer

Parents play a vital role in the Move-In Day process: loading up the truck, packing everything into the car, navigating through a sea of unending congestion, and finally unpacking boxes and assembling futons. # Come For The Food...

The Taste of Bradley was held in the Olin Quad on Sunday, August 26, 2001. This gave students a chance to spend time with their friends as well as make new ones, while all sharing the same goal... to have some good food.

Sharing a moment; Brian Smith and Max Kirbach take a bite in to their slices of pizza. Many students enjoyed sampling from spots to eat off-campus, such as One World, Subway, and Papa John's pizza. Photo by: Lisa Dwyer

...Stay For The Fun!

The All-School Picnic

brought together students of all ages to hang out in the St. James Apartment complex August 28, 2001. For two and a half hours, students eagerly jumped at the chance to eat anything but the dorm food they would be consuming for the rest of the year.

Parents' Weekend

Parents' Weekend was held on October 19 - 21.

Several events and activities kept the parents busy from morning to night, leaving them exhausted and wanting to go to bed even earlier than usual! The dads had a chance to see several sporting events such as men's hockey, soccer, and swim team, along with women's volleyball and soccer. On Saturday, ambitious runners got a chance to run a 5K race, and see the "Parent of the Year" awarded. The Bradley Bands/Chorale Parents' Weekend was music to the ears, and finally, Bill Cosby preformed at the Robertson Memorial Field House. Sunday, a brunch was held in the Student Center Ballroom to say goodbye.

COS Comes To Town

October 20, 2001

There's nothin' like the view from the cheap seats. Students stood in line for longer than three hours on a Tuesday morning to buy tickets. Sales started at 9 a.m., but the line already had wrapped around the fieldhouse by 8 a.m. Those who weren't at the beginning of the line often were left with the less-than-ideal seats.

Cosby is known for his witty accounts, his all-too-true recountings of dentist visits, and his more than fluent gestures and facial expressions. Photo by: Brian Goldfarb

Dining Delight

An endless array of food options...

When all else fails, make your own food. Dan Costello and Annette Fox demonstrate their spaghetti cooking abilities and avoid the cafeterias.

Autumn cookout ... Andrea Sunwall makes hamburgers and hot dogs on the grill between Harper and Wyckoff.

Cafe Bradley closed on Sundays, leaving Sunday dining options limited to Geisert Hall cafeteria between 10 a.m. and 1 p.m. and Center Court from 12 p.m. to 8 p.m.

Leigh Crenshaw demonstrates the art of drinking mustard.

The increased popularity of University Hall cafeteria led to staff suggesting students consider other lunch options. Even so, students are commonly forced to eat their meal in the U-Hall lobby, due to the lack of seating.

September 20, 2001
Williams Hall cafeteria and Center Court received 74 points out of a total 100, after a surprise inspection by the Peoria City and County Health Department.

Study

The view of London from the top of St. Paul's is so breath-taking, these Bradley women don't even have time to turn around for a photo.

Going to London during Bradley's J-Term isn't all fun and sightseeing. Class time and studying is also required as these students discovered.

Below: Anyone thirsty? The typical college refrigerator is filled with drinks for all kinds of tastes and occasions. Bradley University is after all a big party with a $20,000 cover charge.

Above: Who will ever forget the week you had to wear the same pair of pants because you refused to do laundry? That's right, those were the days you swore you would rather buy more underwear than wash the dirty ones. Photo by: Anna Slonim

Left: Current balance: $1.08. Ever wonder where all the money in your checking account went? The ATM machine monster ate it, of course. Well, that or someone stole your pin number and emptied out your account late one night because he/she had to run to LaBambas for a nachos supreme and a large coke. Photo by: Anna Slonim

Volleyball serves up the heat

In a season of many firsts in Bradley history the Braves ended this year with a 24-8 overall record. For the first time in school history Bradley set a school, as well as, Missouri Valley Conference record with 648 block assists and a 3.48 blocks-per-game average. Contributing players to this accomplishment were seniors Samantha Hardwick and Stephanie Behrns who were named first-team all-MVC selections. Other players who built this record for the Braves were senior Laura Benzing and sophomore Jenna Passman who earned second team honors. Coach Luster followed his players with honors and was named the 2001 MVC Coach of the Year. While the three seniors lost this year will be missed, the team will have a strong nucleus in-tact for next season. As for the future of the Braves this season is the first in many more record breaking ones to come.

Danger: Soccer Balls at Incredible Speeds

The soccer team had a successful 2001 season. Led by head coach Jim DeRose, the Braves finished 12-7-1 overall. They advanced to the Missouri Valley Conference semifinals before falling to top-ranked SMU.

The team was led by four time All-American Gavin Ginton. This was Ginton's senior year, in which he scored 10 goals. Ginton holds the MVC record for most career goals with 53 total. Gavin leaves Bradley for the MLS Los Angeles Galaxy.

Junior forward Hamid Mehreioskouei scored nine goals this season, and was a strong asset to the Bradley offense.

Keeping the ball away from his opponent, Craig White takes the ball down the field with support from teammate Sam Mills.

Basketball shows its stuff with full force

The men's Basketball Team ended the season with an overall record of 8-19 and a Missouri Valley Conference record of 5-13. The team still managed to claim recognition in the MVC. The team was led by a trio affectionately called the "G-men" after their 'g' last names. For the Missouri Valley Conference, Phillip Gilbert, guard, earned second-team All-MVC honors. Danny Granger, forward, was named second leading vote-getter on the All-Freshman team. James Gillingham, guard, was placed on the All-Defense team and achieved third vote-getter honors.

Strongest opening in Bradley history

With a season opening winning streak of 9-0, the Lady Braves were off to a great season. They finished the season 16-12, and were able to advance to the first round of the Missouri Valley Conference Tournament. Team Captain Lora Weber was named Missouri Valley Conference Scholar-Athlete of the year. Career highs were scored by seniors Sara Mozingo (18 pts.) and Lora Weber (17 pts.) The team found itself with record attendance at games. It was also a season of improvement, each year being better than the last under the direction of head coach Paula Buscher.
